ELECT JAKE WELLS ON TENTH BALLOT

Danville Finally Breaks Dead-Nock in Virginia Baseball League Presidency,

HIS OPPONENT HANNAN

Magnates Adopt Schedule Submitted by Secretary Gregory After Making Few Changes,

Jake Wells was re-elected prosident of the Virginia Basebali Leggue last olight at a meeting of the league magnates in Marchy's Hotel, Danville breaking the deadleck on the tenth ballot. Fortsmouth and Homoke fought Wells to the very last easting their votes on every ballot for William H. Hennan, Jr. formerly secretary of the Norfolk Club, whose name was placed in nomination by Charles T. Bisad, of Portmouth, when the election of a pregident was first taken up early in the afternoon.

This was the third time the magnates had met to cleat a president, and for many hours it looked as if the deadlock would have be broken. Whenever the election was entered into-ad the balloting continued at interval the meeting waxed warm. Finally at 10:30 o'clock a recess was taken, and several of the directors adjourned to an adjoining hall for a conference.

President's Salary Reduced.

Match Depends Upon Whether or Not He Can Get in Condition.

CHICAGO, ILL., March 1,—"I will fight Jack Johnson for the heavy-weight championship of the world if I am able to get into condition to do myself justice." said James J. Jeffries, who was in Chicago to-day on his way to New York.

"The report that I said I would fight Johnson as soon as I finished my vaudeville engagement is not true; continued Jeffries. "I have not said definitely I would fight Johnson, and I am not ready to say so now. My future depends on my ability to get into condition, and I am not certain yet that I will be able to do myself justice if I return to the Fing. I must have more time to analyze my condition before I will make any definite plans."

RICHMOND MEET IS COMPLIMENTED

Washington Paper Says It Offers Fine Example to That City.

The Washington Herald prints the following complimentary natice in reference to the Richmond College indoor meet in this city Saturday night: Although poorly attended, the Rich-day night, offered a fine example to those who promote college indoor meets in this city, for, from the opening gun, the whole affair was run off in a far superior manner to any seen in the South this season.

With James V. Mulligan, the famous old Georgetown runner, and a member of the last Olympic team, doing the starting, and the rest of the officials starting, and the rest of the officials working in perfect unison, the entire event evolved in a manner which could only be fully appreciated by the Washingtonian who has patronized local games for the past two seasons.

Never once was there a lull in the program, which to begin with showed Scries.

Scries.

Scries program, which, to begin with, showed careful and conscientious preparation. Promptly at the appointed time, Starter Mulligan brought the opening event to the marks and straight through to the finish all the events were peeled off numerically.

The bulk of the credit due for this feature of the games belongs to the starter, for it was mainly through his individual efforts that the excellent within and Tucker rolled a consistent me for the local squad, while Deady and be kept the match inp and tuck for the folk signeration. A large crowd was hand to help the players by a round of ting. that the Virginia capital enthusiasts have ever seen.

Another feature of the games which might be appreciated by the public might be appreciated by the public here, and especially that portion which must labor with the summaries for various new columns, was the way in which the floor, once stripped for action, was kept devoid of that class which flocks out into the open at every opportunity and makes itself conspicuous by obstructing the view of those who have coughed up a rather fancy price that they might witness the affair.
